Position Description: This is a recruiting, training, and development class for persons qualified to exercise, under general supervision, financial and performance auditing methods as specified by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Government Auditing Standards issued by the Federal Government, and the policies of the California State Auditor. Auditor Evaluators perform, under supervision, almost all basic data gathering and analytical tasks and some planning tasks. Incumbents may also assist in the completion of a segment of an audit. Auditor Evaluators use manual and computerized methods to accumulate, analyze, and present data. Auditor Evaluators develop a basic understanding of auditees' operations and reporting systems. Generally, Auditor Evaluators at this level obtain most of the experience necessary to earn their CPA certification, if desired. Auditor Evaluators may also perform special projects and analyses relating to office administration and pending audits.

Knowledge and Abilities

A. Knowledge of: General accounting and auditing principles and procedures; principles and practices of organizational management including planning, organizing, accounting, auditing, and quantitative analysis methods; research and information gathering techniques; and basic principles and practices of descriptive and inferential statistics.

B. Ability to: Apply the required knowledge; review and analyze state and federal laws, regulations, and program data; review and analyze accounting records; learn and apply "Government Auditing Standards" prescribed by the Federal Government and standards of the auditing profession; review management and other related controls over financial data; conduct effective interviews with auditee's staff at all levels; gain and maintain the confidence and cooperation of those contacted; analyze, organize, and synthesize a variety of information into supported audit findings and logical recommendations; effectively incorporate the use of microcomputers in performing audits; prepare clear, complete, and concise reports; and communicate effectively.

Additional Desirable Qualifications: Ability to use word processing and spreadsheet software.

Special Requirements: Willingness to travel, work away from the headquarters' office, and work long and irregular hours.

Confidentiality and Security
